

YOUNG PEOPLE OF SOCIETY TO THE FORE

Continued from First Page.

will be that of Miss Mary H. Cunningham, daughter of Mrs. James Cunningham, to Murray Sargent of New Haven, Conn., at St. Thomas's church on January 18. The Rev. Dr. Ernest M. Stires, rector of the church, will officiate.

Miss Cunningham has chosen as attendants her sisters, the Misses Sara M. and Elizabeth Cunningham, and her cousins, the Misses Lois, Evelyn and Genevieve Cunningham.

Ziegler Sargent, brother of the bridegroom, will be the best man. After the ceremony there will be a reception at the home of the bride's mother, 124 East Fifty-fifth street.

Society here was interested in the news of the wedding in London on Thursday last of Mrs. Theodore Hostetter of this city to Anson Wood Burdett. It was celebrated in St. Paul's Church, Orono Square, the Rev. Webb Pollock officiating. Only a few intimate friends were present for the ceremony and wedding breakfast that followed at Claridge's Hotel.

Miss Greta Hostetter acted as her mother's only bridesmaid. Mrs. Hostetter was introduced to society here last winter after her return from Europe with her mother at a ball given by Mrs. Hostetter at Sherry's.

Among the guests at the wedding ceremony were Lord and Lady Grenville, the Comte de Paris, Mrs. Hinesdell Parsons, Capt. and the Hon. Mrs. Fielden, Mrs. L. C. Hasell, Mrs. Borwick and Mr. and Mrs. Howard C. Lewis.

Mr. and Mrs. Burdett left for Monte Carlo on their wedding tour.

Cable despatches from Paris received here last week announced the wedding of Mrs. Katherine Joy, daughter of the late Thomas Griffin of Detroit, to Westworth Cruger Bacon, youngest son of the late Francis McNeil Bacon of this city. On account of mourning in the bridegroom's family the ceremony was celebrated quietly in the American Church in Paris with none but relatives present. Hallett Johnson of the American Embassy in London acted as best man. Mr. and Mrs. Bacon left for a visit to the south of France after the ceremony.

Another wedding abroad last week of interest to society here was the marriage in London on Wednesday of Miss Gladys Grace, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael P. Grace, formerly of this city, to Capt. Hamilton Grace of the Thirtieth British Hussars. It was celebrated in St. Peter's Church, Eaton Square. Miss Grace's attendants included Lady Eileen Browne, Lady Joan Byng, Miss Millington Drake, Miss Alice Eyre and Miss Juanita Eyre. Miss Ursula Richards was the flower girl and Michael Beaumont, a nephew of the bride, acted as page.

Major Nevill Cameron was the best man. Capt. and Mrs. Grace left for Egypt after the wedding reception.

Mr. and Mrs. Geoffrey Konta, who were married in St. Mark's Church recently, are in the South on their wedding tour. Mrs. Konta was Miss Phyllis Goodhue, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Goodhue of this city.

There will be many ways for the charitablely disposed to dispense their money during the next two months. A decidedly novel entertainment is being organized by the ladies of the Benevolent Society of St. Vincent de Paul's Church to raise funds for the French orphans and poor of this city. The society contributes to the support of a day nursery, a home for the aged and orphans, and it also helps poor families with money for house rent and otherwise assisting those in need.

Mme. Henri Goulan, wife of the French Vice-Consul in New York, has arranged an attractive programme to be given on the night of December 17 in the large reception room on the dock of the French line, Pier 57, North River, which is at the foot of West Fifteenth street. A temporary stage will be erected for the occasion and the assembly room will be turned into a spacious theatre.

Two comedies, "L'Obstacle" by Purique, and "L'Ennemie" by E. Pailleron, will be acted in French by Mme. Goulan, Count de Pontac, Mme. de Tesson and others, and after the amateurs are through Mme. Simone will come from her regular theatrical engagement to recite, and there will be some monologues by M. de Max, who was formerly in Mme. Sarah Bernhardt's company. Afterward there will be general dancing and supper.

Among the patronesses and committee are the Countess de Laugier-Villars, Mme. Etienne Lanel, wife of the French Consul; Mrs. James Bliss Townsend, the Misses Gilbert, Mrs. J. Herbert Johnston, Miss Josephine Noel, Mrs. Robert J. Hogue, Mrs. Louis de Milhau, Mrs. Maurice La Montagne, Mrs. Robert L. Hogue, Mrs. Charles Du Vivier, Miss Bonnier, Miss Georgine Leelin, Miss Anne Delmonico, Miss La Montagne, Mrs. Henry E. Gould, Mrs. Vicente Picabia, Mrs. Huntington Norton, Mrs. Charles Montant, Mrs. Henry Binse and Mrs. Frederick Blum.

Tickets at $2.50 may be obtained of Mrs. Gould, 21 West Twelfth street; Mrs. Charles Du Vivier, 2345 Broadway, and at Delmonico's. Supper at a fixed price will be served by Delmonico and the music for dancing will be by the orchestra of the steamship France.

Plans are already being made by the managers of the New York Orthopedic Hospital and Dispensary for a concert to be given in the grand ballroom of the Waldorf-Astoria on the afternoon of January 7. It will be one of the most interesting concerts of the season and artists from the Metropolitan Opera will be heard. Their names will be announced later.

It is four years since the managers of the hospital have asked for any assistance of this sort and the responses to their appeal for help will probably be generous. On the committee are Mmes. Charles B. Alexander, Archibald Murray, Whitelaw Reid, Robert S. Brown, Douglas Robinson, Gilbert Cochran, William D. Sloane, R. Fulton Cutting, William Robinson, Charles D. Dickey, A. Murray Young, Charles Bertram, William H. Dinmore, Walter L. Suydam, John Hobart Warren, Henry E. Rowland and James A. Burden; the Misses Caroline Forest, Lucy Frelinghuysen, Elizabeth S. Hamilton and Caroline White.

Tickets for seats and boxes may be obtained of Mrs. Charles B. Alexander, West Fifty-eighth street, and Miss Dozie, 18 West Thirty-fourth street.

A concert for the benefit of the Hamilton Street Settlement will be given on the afternoon of December 17 at the home of Mrs. John Henry Hammond, 5 East Ninety-first street. Mrs. W. North Duane, Mrs. Stowe Phelps and Miss Elizabeth Curtis are in charge of the arrangements, and they have engaged Kurt Schindler, the Madrigal Singers, Francis Rogers, Miss Sara Gurwitsch and George Vignetti.

The date set for the annual charity ball in aid of the Nursery and Child's Hospital is January 30, and it will be given as for some years in the grand ballroom suite of the Waldorf-Astoria. This ball is a time honored event and has been held annually for more than half a century, during which period it has held its high standing.

The ball committee will include Mrs. Algernon Sydney Sullivan, Mrs. Henry Clay Adams, Mrs. Thomas Hicks, Mrs. Edward J. Perwind, Miss Ruth Lawrence, Mrs. George Hillard Benjamin, Mrs. Robert Nicol, Mrs. Henry Mills Day, Mrs. Charles Francis Roe and Mrs. Frank S. Witherlee. Boxes may be ordered

Stebbins, Robert Bacon and George B. Wagstaff. The group for the Scotch dances will include the Misses Angelica Brown, Constance Goodrich, Dorothy Hyde and Emily Coe. Monroe Douglas Robinson, Chalmers Wood, Jr., Chester Burden and Reginald B. Rives.

Tickets for the entertainment at $5 each may be had on application to Mrs. Stanley Mortimer at Roslyn, L. I. A large number of Mrs. Mortimer's friends and many of those who compose the board of managers of the home have already purchased tickets so that the success of the charity is almost assured. Mrs. Henry Parish, Jr., Mrs. Ralph Pulitzer, Mrs. Charles Steele, Mrs. Frederick Roosevelt, Mrs. E. Henry Harriman, Mrs. Edwin D. Morgan and Mrs. Harold Godwin are among the patronesses.

Still another charity entertainment of the week will be that in the ballroom of the Plaza on Thursday afternoon and evening under the auspices of the Junior Auxiliary of the Union Settlement for the benefit from Mrs. Roe at her house, 35 East Thirty-seventh street.

Miss Margaret B. Wagstaff

Men and women of society are to take part in the Christmas festival of the Macdonell Club, which is to be held at the Waldorf-Astoria on December 18, at 9 o'clock. The programme will show in the first part ancient rites and rituals from which some of our Christmas customs are outgrowths and survivals. Following this will be a pageant and costume ball. This will include a Greek procession, arranged by Herbert Adams and Miss Beth Averil, in which will occur a sacrificial dance arranged by Mrs. Robert Anderson to the accompaniment of flutes and harps.

Next will come a Saxon festival held in honor of Freia, their god of youth and beauty. The origin of our Christmas tree and yule log, the serving of the boar's head will be shown in this and the esoteric meaning of the highest plum pudding will be interpreted by Miss Ruth St. Denis in a dance of "The Flames," descriptive of the destruction of the world and the creation of a new heaven and a new earth with the return of gods and men.

In another scene will be shown the procession of Druids gathering mistletoe, and this will be followed by a tableau arranged by John W. Alexander, entitled "The Star of Bethlehem." The pageant and ball to follow will have for a prologue a living frieze copied from an Egyptian papyrus in which Mr. and Mrs. Ben Ali Haggin, Miss Belle Greene, Miss Luisa Leland, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Delafeld, Charles Slater and others will pose. Others taking part will be Mr. and Mrs. Langdon Geer, Miss Ruth Davis, Miss Alice Damrosch, Theodore Steinway, Miss Dorothea Gilder, Miss Olive Nicholls, Miss Rene Despard, Miss Charlotte Gilder, Robert Henri-George Belows, D. Purnam Brinley and Charles D. Coburn.

The costume ball will open with the painters and poets quadrille, representing famous portrait groups by old masters and the literary classics. Among those who have taken boxes are Mrs. Charles B. Alexander, Mrs. Edward Delafeld, Mrs. Samuel Untermyer, Mrs. Thomas W. Lamont, Mrs. William Salomon, Mrs. Evans R. Dick, Mrs. Heinrich Meyn, Mrs. August Lewis, Mrs. Vincent Loefer, Mrs. Simon Ford and Mrs. James E. Neal. The incidental music will be under the direction of Edmund Hurley, organist of the Paulist Church. The date will mark the anniversary of Edward Macdonell's birth.

Plans have been temporarily abandoned for the entertainment and dance in aid of the Downtown Nursery in Cedar street, which had been arranged to be given in the new ballroom of the Ritz-Carlton to-morrow. John Barrymore, who was to have appeared in a little sketch has been forced to cancel his engagement to perform for the charity, and those who are interested in the benefit will meet this week in the hope of arranging something to be given at a later date. The patronesses include Mrs. John Magee, Mrs. James W. Gerard, Mrs. Herbert M. Harriman, Mrs. James F. D. Lanier, Mrs. William Douglas Sloane and Mrs. Henry Steers.

The programme of vaudeville in which society will appear at Sherry's on Tuesday night in aid of the Convalescent Home for Babies in Sea Cliff, L. I., has been completed. It will consist of a series of French, Russian, Scotch and other fancy dances, two short sketches and perhaps a few impromptu features. The entertainment will be followed by general dancing for which Conrad's orchestra will play.

Mmes. Eugene M. Ladenburg and William G. Wendell will take part in one of the dramatic features entitled "The Highwayman," by Justin McCarthy, and Miss Mary Campbell and Francis W. Crowninshield will appear in the other number, which has been arranged by Mr. Crowninshield.

Mrs. Geoffrey Konta

of the Montessori School for Italian children recently opened at the settlement, which is at 35 East Ninth street. A series of Dickens tableaux in which young people will pose after illustrations of Crutchenbank will be given under the direction of Mrs. F. Leonard Kellogg and will be accompanied by English gle songs. These will be followed by the play "The Cricket on the Hearth," by Charles Dickens, the cast for which is as follows:

John Pershing (a carrier), Lauren Carroll (Mr. Tickleton (a toymaker), Karl Frederick (Caleb Plummer (this man), Edgar Norton (Old Gentleman), Delight Franklin (Mrs. Belding), Miss Emily Gilbert (Mrs. Fielding), Miss Mary Edgar (May Fielding), Miss Eleanor Du Bois (Tilly Shallow), Miss Mary Wood (Mrs. Dot), Miss Florence Colgate (Mrs. Doobleday and Ruth Purvis, also E. Fisher Wood, John Sloane, Alfred O'Leary, Philip Stinson, William Travers Jerome, Jr., and Ellis Leavenworth.

The patronesses include Mmes. Ambrose Monell, Henry Fairfield Osborn, Robert E. Tod, James Blackstone Taylor, Junius Morgan, Thomas Satterthwaite, William Jay Schieffelin, Robert Irving Jenks, Morris K. Jesup, James Colby

Miss Margaret B. Wagstaff

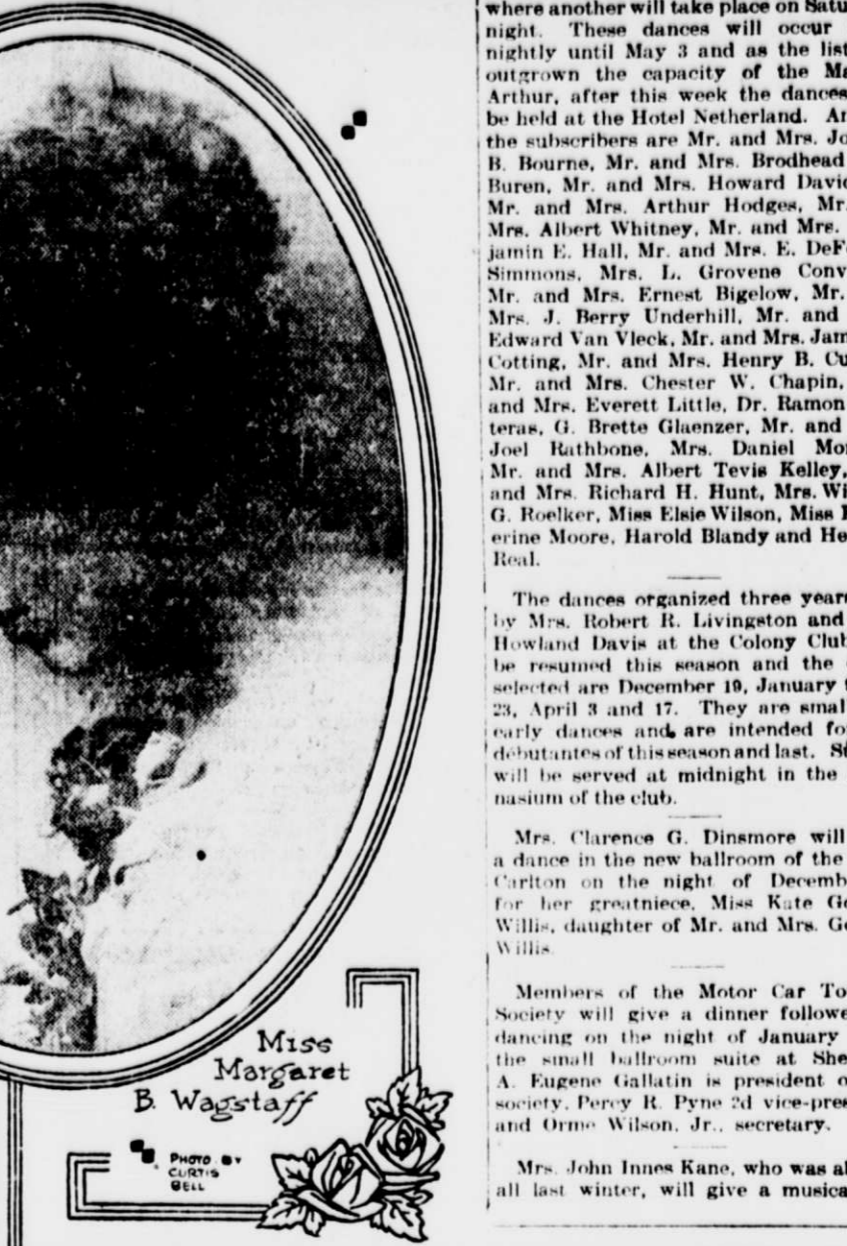

Colgate, Grover Cleveland, Andrew Carnegie, William Adams Brown, Gilbert Colgate, Frank S. Hastings, William Stuart Edgar, Henry C. Sturges, George F. Crane, Howard Carroll, William Allen Butler, E. Francis Hyde, James M. Townsend, William E. S. Griswold, Thatcher M. Brown, John A. Gade, Charles B. Foote, Frederic H. Betts, Elhu Root, Jr., Henry A. Todd and Richard M. Hoe.

For the benefit of the West Side Day Nursery there will be given in the new Aeolian Hall on Wednesday, December 18, at 3 o'clock an entertainment called "An Afternoon of Song" under the auspices of the managers of the nursery. The artists will be Mme. Namara Toye and Arthur Phillips.

Applications for tickets may be made to

Mrs. Charles Stewart Smith, president of the nursery, at the Plaza Hotel; Mrs. Charles B. Foote, treasurer, at 335 Park avenue, or to any of the officers, who are Mrs. James J. Goodwin, Mrs. Robert C. Black and Miss Mary C. Phelps. Tickets are $2.50 each and boxes $25. Among the members of the board of managers are Mrs. Hiram W. Sibley, Mrs. Gosh M. Bacon, Mrs. Edward D. Adams, Mrs. Howard Mansfield, Mrs. Robert G. Mead, Mrs. Henry C. Valentine, Mrs. William G. Davies, Mrs. John H. Rhodes, Mrs. J. Howard Latham and Mrs. Daniel Bacon.

One of the recently organized subscription dances is known as that of the Grown Ups and the first of the series was held a week ago last night at the Maison Arthur, in East Forty-fifth street,

Mrs. George S. Graham and Miss Marion Graham

Thursday at which Miss Lucrezia Bori of the Metropolitan Opera will sing.

Mrs. James Speyer will give to-morrow at her house, 257 Madison avenue, a luncheon in honor of Baroness von Suttner, who received the Nobel prize for her efforts for the advancement of peace. Several women of prominence have been invited.

Mr. and Mrs. John Russell Pope have returned from their wedding trip and are at 829 Park avenue for the winter. Mrs. Pope was Miss Sadie Jones, her marriage having been celebrated at the country place of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Penbrooke Jones, in Wilmington, N. C., on October 31.

Mr. and Mrs. John P. Gilford and their four daughters are in Geneva, Switzerland, where they will remain for the winter. During the holidays they will go to St. Moritz.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Bourke Cockran have come in from their country place, the Cedars, in Port Washington, L. I., and are at the Ritz-Carlton for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Whitehouse have gone to Roslyn, L. I., to visit Mr. Lloyd S. Bryce, who will leave for The Hague to join Mr. Bryce early next month.

Miss Amy Townsend will go to Boston this week to attend a sale of lace made by members of the Sybil Carter Association, to be held at the house of Mrs. Montgomery Sears on Thursday.

GENERAL NOTES OF SOCIETY.

Miss Dorothy Everett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Silas K. Everett, and Miss Lila Blandy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Blandy, are the organizers of a new set of winter dances which are to be held in the new ballroom of the Ritz-Carlton. The first dance will be on Tuesday, December 17, and will be followed by two others on January 1 and February 1.

The patronesses in addition to Mrs. Blandy and Mrs. Everett will be Mrs. A. Clark where another will take place on Saturday night. These dances will occur fortnightly until May 3 and as the list has outgrown the capacity of the Maison Arthur, after this week the dances will be held at the Hotel Nederland. Among the subscribers are Mr. and Mrs. Joseph B. Bourne, Mr. and Mrs. Brodhead Van Buren, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Davidson, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hodges, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Whitney, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin E. Hall, Mr. and Mrs. E. DeForest Simmons, Mrs. L. Grovener Converse, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Bigelow, Mr. and Mrs. J. Berry Underhill, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Van Vleck, Mr. and Mrs. Jameson Cotting, Mr. and Mrs. Henry B. Culver, Mr. and Mrs. Chester W. Chapin, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Little, Dr. Ramon Gutierrez, G. Brette Glanzer, Mr. and Mrs. Joel Rathbone, Mrs. Daniel Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Tevis Kelley, Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Hunt, Mr. William G. Roelker, Miss Elsie Wilson, Miss Katherine Moore, Harold Blandy and Herbert Reel.

The dances organized three years ago by Mrs. Robert R. Livingston and Mrs. Howland Davis at the Colony Club will be resumed this season and the dates selected are December 10, January 9 and 23, April 3 and 17. They are small and early dances and are intended for the debutantes of this season and last. Supper will be served at midnight in the gymnasium of the club.

Mrs. Clarence G. Dinmore will give a dance in the new ballroom of the Ritz-Carlton on the night of December 27 for her greatniece, Miss Kate Gordon Willis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Willis.

Members of the Motor Car Touring Society will give a dinner followed by dancing on the night of January 15 in the small ballroom suite at Sherry's. A Eugene Gallatin is president of the society, Percy R. Pyne 2d vice-president and Orme Wilson, Jr., secretary.

Mrs. John Innes Kane, who was abroad all last winter, will give a musicale on afternoon at her home, 152 West Ninety-second street, yesterday afternoon to the members of the Ethma College Club. The hostess was assisted in receiving by Mrs. W. R. Bross of Babylon, L. I., Mrs. Frederick Hamlin Mills, Mrs. Samuel Seaman Campbell, Miss Marie L. Manners, Mrs. Francis W. Gridley, Mrs. William T. Rathbun and Mrs. Clarence L. Bleakley. At the tea table were Mrs. Daniel C. Hood and Miss Clara L. Simon.

One of the largest of the season's entertainments for charity will be given on Tuesday evening at the Plaza under the auspices of the Young Women's Hospital Guild. It will be a ball and the proceeds will be used to establish a dispensary at the New York Post Graduate Hospital and Medical School. Among the patronesses will be Mrs. H. Holbrook Curtis, Mrs. Wendell C. Phillips, Mrs. George Augustus Becknell, Mrs. Charles E. Mitchell, Mrs. H. Henry Bertram, Mrs. H. Van Courtlandt Homans, Mrs. W. Keith Mitterdorf, Mrs. R. Wayland Smith, Mrs. George R. Branson, Mrs. Charles Louis Siegel, Mrs. James B. Regan, Mrs. George Schaefer, Mrs. Ralph Sturges, Mrs. John L. Adams, Mrs. Clifford De Stott, Mrs. Herbert Dean Lounsbury, Mrs. William H. Haskin, Mrs. Robert E. Davenport, Mrs. Edward M. Knox, Mrs. Otis Smith, Mrs. Edward N. Sanderson, Mrs. Edward Lauterbach, Mrs. William Jayne, Mrs. Edgar Van Etten, Mrs. George H. Curtis, Mrs. F. B. Carpenter and Mrs. Henry S. Stearns.

Rishel, Mrs. B. P. Cardozo, Mrs. Harry G. Tobey, Mrs. Peter Gibson, Mrs. Charles G. Gates, Mrs. William Clark Poffin, Mrs. W. Benjamin Cardozo and Mrs. Clifford B. Simpson.

Mrs. Wilson, wife of President-elect Woodrow Wilson, will be the guest of honor at the reception and breakfast which the Woman's Democratic Club will give at the Waldorf-Astoria on Saturday, December 21. Mrs. John Sherwin Crosby is president of the club and Mrs. Emily Skoog the treasurer. Mrs. William Porter Jenkins is chairman of the committee on arrangements and Mrs. John Robert Miller of the reception committee.

An entertainment was given yesterday afternoon at the Carnegie Lyceum under the auspices of Auxiliary No. 5 of the Stony-wold Sanatorium for the benefit of one of its women patients. It was called "A Journey Through Wonderland" and was very interesting to the children. The programme was arranged by Miss Madeleine Rives, who held the attention of the little folks with her wonderful stories, including "A Day With the Chinese Children," plantation songs by "Little Pickaninny" and an original presentation of "Hansel and Gretel" and the "Childhood of Hiawatha," with stereopticon views and music. The entertainment was under the patronage of Mrs. George Sherman Weaver, Mrs. Isaac L. Lawrence, Miss Mary F. Hunt, Mrs. G. Ireland Cook, Mrs. Frederick R. Patterson, Mrs. Clifford E. Smith, Mrs. Thomas Hicks and Mrs. A. B. Johns.

Mrs. Samuel Moore Keifer gave a reception at her home, 152 West Ninety-second street, yesterday afternoon to the members of the Ethma College Club. The hostess was assisted in receiving by Mrs. W. R. Bross of Babylon, L. I., Mrs. Frederick Hamlin Mills, Mrs. Samuel Seaman Campbell, Miss Marie L. Manners, Mrs. Francis W. Gridley, Mrs. William T. Rathbun and Mrs. Clarence L. Bleakley. At the tea table were Mrs. Daniel C. Hood and Miss Clara L. Simon.

One of the largest of the season's entertainments for charity will be given on Tuesday evening at the Plaza under the auspices of the Young Women's Hospital Guild. It will be a ball and the proceeds will be used to establish a dispensary at the New York Post Graduate Hospital and Medical School. Among the patronesses will be Mrs. H. Holbrook Curtis, Mrs. Wendell C. Phillips, Mrs. George Augustus Becknell, Mrs. Charles E. Mitchell, Mrs. H. Henry Bertram, Mrs. H. Van Courtlandt Homans, Mrs. W. Keith Mitterdorf, Mrs. R. Wayland Smith, Mrs. George R. Branson, Mrs. Charles Louis Siegel, Mrs. James B. Regan, Mrs. George Schaefer, Mrs. Ralph Sturges, Mrs. John L. Adams, Mrs. Clifford De Stott, Mrs. Herbert Dean Lounsbury, Mrs. William H. Haskin, Mrs. Robert E. Davenport, Mrs. Edward M. Knox, Mrs. Otis Smith, Mrs. Edward N. Sanderson, Mrs. Edward Lauterbach, Mrs. William Jayne, Mrs. Edgar Van Etten, Mrs. George H. Curtis, Mrs. F. B. Carpenter and Mrs. Henry S. Stearns.

The French Day Nursery, ball to be given at Louis Martin's on Saturday, will begin with an entertainment consisting of two plays, "L'Obstacle" and "Eux," in which Mrs. Henri Goulan, Mme. de Tesson and Mme. Willmetts will appear. Mrs. Ethel Roosevelt will sell flowers, assisted by Miss H. Chanut, Miss A. Bertholou, Miss A. Clement, the Misses Curtis, Miss G. DeFrance, Miss L. Fister, Miss E. Hirschfeld, Miss Lebois, Miss Paula Lambert, Miss Albert, Miss Moore, Miss N. Pousseu, Miss G. Rogers, Miss Reilly, Miss Rosario, Miss R. Simon, the Misses Susskind, Miss M. Samboise, Miss Trotter, Miss B. Well, Miss Lucie Seltzer. Many well known people of society have taken tickets.

The Hungarian Ladies Aid Society will hold its annual charity ball at the Waldorf-Astoria on Saturday, January 4. The Countess Szecseny, although she will not be able to attend, has sent her annual donation in a check for $100.

Among those who will act as patronesses are Mrs. M. Berk, Mrs. A. Brieger, Mrs. D. Berkowitz, Mrs. A. Chorbis, Mrs. R. Davidowitz, Mrs. W. M. Engel, Mrs. F. Frohman, Mrs. M. Folgerman, Mrs. N. Folgerman, Mrs. H. Greenbaum, Mrs. S. Grossman, Mrs. M. A. Hannes, Mrs. E. Kleinmann, Mrs. Lanrowitz, Mrs. A. Merle, Mrs. I. H. Rosenfeld, Mrs. J. Reile, Mrs. R. Simpson, Mrs. M. Strauss, Mrs. B. Soudner, Mrs. N. Shoen, Mrs. F. Steinberg and Mrs. A. Zukor.

There was a large attendance at the first reception and dance of this season of the Georgia Society on Tuesday at the Plaza. It was New York night and the patronesses, some of whom received the guests, were Mmes. Robert Adamson, John Temple Graves, George C. Atkinson, Mrs. Maria Allen Battle, M. J. Briesteguchi, E. C. Chisholm, Floyd S. Corbin, Henry S. Colding, Leonard Day, W. E. Evans, W. R. Fagan, William E. Pruden, J. H. Gross, Frank J. Hoyle, Harry L. Jones, Percy C. Magnus, Ernest E. Malachuk, David Parker, James R. Royall, C. Penbody, W. E. Fitch, H. H. Raymond, Joseph S. Raymond, David Robinson, Sterrett Tate, Legare Walker, George B. Williams and Joseph W. Woolfolk.

The first of the Tuesday salons last week at the Ritz-Carlton brought out a large and fashionable audience. These musicales are under the direction of Mrs. Anson Dudley Bramhall. The first was given in the new ballroom and small tables were arranged about the room so that the guests could enjoy light refreshments while listening to the programme, rendered by Mrs. Goulan-Riders, soprano; Claude Cunningham, baritone; and Rudolph Ganz, pianist. The next salon will be on January 7, when the artists will be Miss Anna Case, soprano; William Wade Hinshaw of the Metropolitan Opera Company and Louis J. Persinger, violinist.

Mrs. J. Lenox Washington was chairman of the reception committee and her associates were Mrs. Frederick Sewall, Mrs. J. L. Burley, Miss Irma Pabbitt, Miss Lelia H. Daniel, Mrs. Joseph N. Ely, Miss Carlotta Fischer, Mrs. Edna O. Wisner, Mrs. Winifred Goldsmith, Mrs. Gerald H. Groat, Miss Helen Trumbull Hakes, Miss Adelaide Hollowbush, Miss Neida Humphrey, Mrs. R. Bayard Taylor Kilian, Miss Lucy Lawrence, Mrs. Alice M. Moffat, Mrs. Warren McCannell, Miss Alyse Tyson, Mrs. Norman W. Van Nostrand and Miss Esthe de Ribas Winkler.

On the membership committee are Mrs. B. M. Baruch, Mrs. Simon Baruch, Mrs. Clarence Burns, Mrs. Louis Enders, Mrs. W. W. Ford, Mrs. John Strong Foster, Mrs. Albert H. Gleason, Mrs. John H. Griesel, Mrs. Florence Guernsey, Mrs. William Tod Helmut, Mrs. Samuel M. Jarvis, Mrs. Stephen J. Leonard, Mrs. Arthur Garfield Learned, Mrs. Emerson MacMillan, Mrs. Ethelbert Nevil, Mrs. Oliver Dwight Norton, Mrs. Bedell Parker, Mrs. Edmund E. Sinclair, Mrs. Edgar Van Ritten, Mrs. Bartow S. Weeks and Mrs. Rawson L. Wood.

Many dollars will be added to the treasury of the Free Industrial School for Crippled Children from the sale of home made cakes and candies and fancy and useful articles held at the home of Mrs. Alfred Treighton Porter, 60 West Fifty-third street, on Friday afternoon, December 13, under the auspices of the Junior League of the school. The officers of the league and who helped at the sale are Mrs. Edward Britton Archer, president; Mrs. Philip O. Schlessner, Miss Florence Cugle, Mrs. Walter H. Molloy, Mrs. George Cass Hutchins, Mrs. Francis Parkman, vice-presidents; Mrs. Frank N. Lewis, treasurer, Miss Lila Marsalis, recording secretary, and Mrs. William Adams, corresponding secretary.

The New York Mozart Society, of which Mrs. Noble McConnell is founder and president, will give its first concert of this season on Monday evening, December 17, at the grand ballroom of the Hotel Astor. John McCormick, the Irish tenor, and Eugene Ysaye, the Belgian violinist, will

Continued on Seventh Page.